The following Awareness message has been communicated through the College Website

- Do not feel hesitation or shame in coming forward to complain in case you feel "harassment".
- Forcefully and assertively tell the harasser that his / her behavior is unwarranted and illegal.
- Keep a detailed record of all incidents related to the sexual harassment. If you feel the need to register a formal complaint later, this record will be helpful.
- All complaints must be brought by the complainant in person to ICC.
- A complaint may be lodged through email or by a telephone call to any of the members of ICC LBC.

Procedure of action to be followed by the ICC LBC in compliance with MHRD /UGC guidelines:

- When a complaint is received the ICC LBC shall conduct a preliminary enquiry to ascertain the nature of the complaint, collect the documentary or other evidence and record statements of the complainant and possible witnesses. The enquiry shall be completed within a period of 90 days from the date of the complaint.
- ICC LBC shall then submit the preliminary Enquiry Report to the authority along with the record of the Statements and supporting documents (if any) within a period of ten days from the date of completion of the inquiry. This report may be made available to the concerned parties.

- In case, the allegations turn to be not related to sexual harassment, ICC LBC shall refer such complaints to the Grievance Redressal Cell or to the Principal.
- After verification of the Complaint, the ICC LBC shall in consultation with its Chief Executive Officer, in this case, the Principal, Lady Brabourne College, and in keeping with the MHRD-UGC guidelines recommend punitive action against the harasser.
- The employer shall act upon the recommendation within sixty days of receiving it.
- If ICC LBC concludes that the allegation made were false, the complainant shall be liable to be punished as per the relevant provision of the aforementioned UGC regulation 2015.
